DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO CONTINUE

RASHAUN SCOTT

Now comes the defendant, RASHAUN SCOTT, and hereby moves that this Honorable Court continues his Trial which is presently scheduled to being on Monday, October 31, 2005 to Monday, November 7, 2005.

As grounds therefore, the defendant states that this case was continued by agreement of the parties on October 4, 2005. This Honorable Court inquired whether both attorneys would be available to start this trial on Monday, October 31st. Counsel for the defendant stated yes. Later that day, however, Counsel for the defendant was reminded by his wife that she is going to be away in Florida visiting her sister during the week of October 31st. Counsel for the defendant therefore will be responsible for caring for his two fifteen year old sons that week. The two boys attend different schools, one in Fall River, and one in Dartmouth. Counsel will be responsible in getting the boys back and forth to their two schools, getting most of their meals, and other transportation and care responsibilities. In order to fully focus on this case, Counsel had planned on staying in Boston for most of the trial, rather than commute back and forth from Fall River. For the above stated reasons, this will not be possible if the trial has to begin on October 31st. Furthermore, it will be extremely difficult for Counsel to arrive at Court by 8:45 a.m. each morning, due to the responsibilities he will have at home the week of October 31st.

WHEREFORE, the defendant prays that this Honorable Court continue his trial from Monday, October 31, 2005, to Monday, November 7, 2005. The defendant states that Assistant United States Attorney Robert Richardson assents to this continuance.
